3. the identification numbers of the Shopping Tickets cannot be checked due to damage or other reasons, or if one third or more of the ticket has been lost due to physical damage; or
4. the validity period indicated on the face of the Shopping Tickets has elapsed.

Article 4 (Cases Where Shopping Tickets Cannot Be Used, Part 2)

1. In the event any of the following events occurs at the Issuer or the Stores Where Accepted, the Shopping Tickets may not be used.
 - (1) A petition is filed for bankruptcy, commencement of civil rehabilitation proceedings, commencement of corporate reorganization proceedings, commencement of arrangement, or commencement of special liquidation;
 - (2) a disposition to suspend transactions with a clearinghouse is received or a payment is otherwise suspended; (3) there is an order or notice of provisional seizure, preservative seizure, or seizure of any important property;
 - (4) the Issuer or Stores Where Accepted cease operations due to a natural disaster or for other reasons; (5) there is breach or non-performance of the contract for the issuance and acceptance of Shopping Tickets, or such contract has been terminated; or
 - (6) there is a compelling reason other than those set forth in the preceding items to determine that there has been a significant decline in creditworthiness.
2. In the event that it becomes difficult to confirm that the Shopping Tickets issued by the Issuer are not counterfeit or altered, or for another reason, Stores Where Accepted may temporarily suspend acceptance of the relevant Shopping Tickets.

Article 5 (Cases Where Shopping Tickets Will Not Be Reissued)

The Issuer will not reissue Shopping Tickets in the event that Shopping Tickets of Customers are lost, stolen, etc.

Article 6 (Relationship with Stores Where Accepted)

In the event that Customers should experience any return of merchandise, defects, or other problems with merchandise or service transactions obtained when using Shopping Tickets, Customers shall resolve such problems with the relevant merchant where the Shopping Tickets were used.

Article 7 (General Prohibition of Redemption)

1. Shopping Tickets are not redeemable for cash.
2. When it is determined that the use of Shopping Tickets has become materially difficult due to reasons for which the Issuer is responsible (except in the case set forth in Paragraph 1 of Article 4), Customers, irrespective of the provisions of the preceding paragraph, may receive a refund from the Issuer by submitting the Shopping Tickets in the manner specified by the Issuer. Refunds will only be provided by the Issuer and will not be provided by any other party for any reason.

Article 8 (Changes to the Handling of Shopping Tickets)

In the event of any changes to these Terms and Conditions regarding the handling of Shopping Tickets, a certain period of advance notice will be established and made known to the public, and the amended Terms and Conditions will apply after the period of advance notice has elapsed.

Supplementary Provisions: These Terms and Conditions are effective as of August 7, 2024.
